

AN INVITATION.

Becoming a member of Barossa Food connects you with a network of people and businesses who share a commitment to sustainable food production in the region, and a desire to work together to promote Barossa as a food growing region and culinary destination.

As the peak body for the region's food community, Barossa Food works with and through its members to share the Barossa food story with the world, to bring Barossa food business together and to build the case for more food business activity in Barossa.

WHO ARE OUR MEMBERS?

GROWERS

PRODUCERS

RESTAURANTS & CAFES

CHEFS & GREAT FOOD PEOPLE

Our activities are funded through membership fees, sponsorships, the support of Councils, RDA Barossa and government grants.

We work in collaboration with government agencies, industry associations, and regional bodies such as Barossa Grape and Wine Association and Barossa Tourism to help establish Barossa as Australia's global wine and food region.
