REFERENCES AND CREDITS

Images used are courtesy of State Library of South Australia, Herbig Family Collection, Barossa Valley, Barossa Regional Heritage Network, and other sources.

ABORIGINAL HERITAGE

The Barossa supports the inclusion of Aboriginal culture in the Barossa Regional Heritage Network. This area was a meeting place for Ngadjuri, Peramangk and Marangkal people, who had a deep connection to the land.

LOCAL TOUR OPERATORS

The Barossa region has a number of tour operators who can assist with a specialised tour or activity. The network promotes the concept of small-scale, guided tours to enhance the visitor experience.

FURTHER INFORMATION

For more information or to enquire about Angas, please contact the Barossa Visitor Centre at 1300 852 982 or visit the website at barossa.com/visit/tours-transport.
