

A short tour of Nuriootpa and Light Pass

A short journey through
NURIOOTPA and LIGHT PASS
 in the Barossa Valley

Discover Nuriootpa – a great culinary destination

DAY 1 It would be ideal to arrive in Nuriootpa late morning – but there's no need to rush, as the drive is much shorter than you might think if coming from Adelaide. When you arrive in Nuriootpa, we recommend a drive through the main street to acquaint yourself and – importantly – choose from a number of locally owned cafés for an introductory coffee. What better way to prepare yourself for a Barossa stay?

You could then start your journey with a visit to Elderton Wines, located in a magnificent homestead surrounded by iconic vineyards, a visit to Elderton Wines is a quintessential Barossa experience, and as winners of a 'Best of SA Wine Tourism' award, you'll know you'll receive a wonderful welcome from the Ashmead family and their team. Once you're ready for lunch, a short stroll will bring you to the very funky First Drop Wines. Select a glass of wine to accompany plates of tapas, cured meats and fresh cheeses. Reflecting owner John Reitsma's proud Greek heritage, this is the perfect light lunch before you continue your Nuriootpa culinary discovery. Continue your wine experiences for today with a visit to the iconic Penfolds Barossa, where you can blend your own wine souvenir, or Kaesler Wines, surrounded by manicured lawns and shady trees.

By now you'll be ready for a lazy late afternoon/evening, so head back to Provenance Barossa, where this local precinct stands ready to deliver a range of delicious culinary experiences. And then, all that is left is to wander over to the Barossa Distilling Co. and settle in with a G & T overlooking the botanicals garden, accompanied by mouth-watering wood fired pizza, topped with local and sustainable produce from Ember Pizza (right next door) or head to Steins Taphouse for a cleansing ale.

Explore the great outdoors

DAY 2 When you're ready, grab your empty backpack to serve as your picnic basket and start your day at Fleur Social with one of Ryan's seasonal single origin coffees – brewed with passion, Barossa Coffee Roaster beans and local Jersey Fresh milk. After yesterday's food and wine indulgence, a light breakfast selected from their revolving cast of toastsies, fresh baked muffins or pastries sounds ideal, and – as a proud Canadian – Ryan's selection of bagels is *chef's kiss* perfection.

Across the road from Fleur Social you'll see the grand nineteenth century silhouette of Coulthard House standing as a quiet reminder of early European settlement, its grounds home to pioneer relics that speak of an entirely different era. (If your visit happens to coincide with the fourth Saturday of the month, the gardens at Coulthard House come alive with their regular Meeting Place Market.)

Spend the rest of the morning exploring one (or more) of Nuriootpa's excellent trails – a great place to start is the Barossa Bushgardens where volunteers have lovingly created a showcase of local Barossa biodiversity. Open to the public from dawn to dusk, pedestrian access is from the Coulthard Reserve walking trail off Penrice Road. Keep an eye out for the 400-year-old River Red Gum, the sculptures and artworks from local artists. And if you have the energy, you might like to finish up with a stroll along the gentle shared trail through Nuriootpa Linear Park, which will bring you to the much-loved Nuri 'train park', home to a retired steam engine landmark for the town.

A big decision awaits for the afternoon...a round of golf, or a bike ride...it's up to you. Barossa Valley Golf Club is a 5-minute drive from Nuriootpa, and a great way to spend an hour or two. The golf course also acts as a sanctuary for flora and fauna, so it's likely that kangaroos will accompany you at a few tees, and you may be privileged to see some rare local bird life.

If cycling wins over golf, then Louis from Barossa Bike Hire will deliver the bicycles of your choice to your accommodation. The nearby hamlet of Light Pass is an easy ride, around 7 – 8 kilometres return. Home to the historic Luhr's Cottage Museum, and several beautiful 19th century Lutheran churches, you'll get a peek into European village life in the 1840's. You might want to break your ride at Gibson Wines, or The Willows Vineyard where the families will welcome you with warm hospitality – don't miss the very luxe Tomfoolery Cellar door, or head back to Nuriootpa via Ubertas Wines and snuggle up in one of their leather couches for a while.

You may be ready for an early night – and a casual meal among the locals at Billy Jacks at Vine Inn Barossa will hit the spot. Or, if a relaxed dinner back at your accommodation sounds delightful, visit the Barossa Larder at Barossa Fresh and select from their staggering range of local and imported cheese and charcuterie and build your own Barossa tasting experience at your accommodation.

The best of Barossa produce and a romantic sunset tour

DAY 3 By now you'll have realised that the Barossa's love for food is immense – so today is dedicated to exploring some of the best of the Barossa's produce (and stocking up for the trip home!) You'll start on the main street of Nuriootpa, visiting some Barossa icons.

Linke's Central Meat Store has been a Barossa tradition for three generations, and this will be your first stop.

Across the street, another branch of the Linke family owns Linke's Bakehouse & Tearooms; a wonderful blend of Barossa tradition and sophisticated providore. The bakery section reflects the generous baked goods known across the Barossa – the deliciously sweet Bienenstich, Deutsche Kuchen, Honig Kuchen and more! If you like something on the sweeter side, you might want to take a short walk down the road to Provenance Barossa and pop in and taste some Barossa Valley Ice Cream. But be careful, you might get lost in the many flavours they make.

Plan to spend several hours at Maggie Beer's Farm shop to truly savour the experience. Explore the incredible range of products, enjoy a wine tasting or sit out on the deck with a coffee and cake. The Farm Eatery & Experience Centre offers a diverse range of cooking classes, including vegan, gluten free, Sunday roasts and pickles and preserves, where you can roll up your sleeves and learn a new skill. Or for something incredibly special, become a distiller for a day at the Barossa Gin School at the Farm. (You'll need to book ahead for all of these experiences.)

Just out of town, there is one final trio of cellar doors that are a must see in any visit to Nuriootpa – Cooper Burns' delightfully intimate cellar door, Rosenvale with 180-degree panoramic view of the Barossa Ranges, and the gorgeous Atze's Corner Wines. A stunning way to experience these locations is to take a tour with Barossa Unique Tours, in either a Mustang convertible, custom Trike, or luxury Jaguar. You'll get to say farewell to the Barossa from the Mengler Hill lookout, and then arrive at Atze's Corner to enjoy a stunning Barossa sunset, sharing a delicious regional platter.
